5th – Look at the books or classes available to you on Successnet.

A screenshot of the Pearson SuccessNet user interface. At the top right, there are links for "Help", "My Account", "About", and "Logout". Below this, the user is greeted with "Hello, Ethan". The main content area features a "World History 2011 Survey Success Tracker" with a "To Do" button. Below that are four interactive science modules: "LITERATURE PHILitOnline! Grade 7", "interactive SCIENCE Earth", "interactive SCIENCE Life", and "interactive SCIENCE Physical". Each module has "Explore" and "To Do" buttons. On the right side, there is a "Notices" section with "No Messages", a "Research Center" and "Resources" section, and a "Look it up!" search bar with a "GO" button. Below the search bar is a list of resources: Almanac, Atlas, Biographies, Dictionaries, Encyclopedia, Homework Center, and Timelines. At the bottom right, it says "powered by infoplease".

6th – Go back to the HJHS website by clicking TAB titled STUDENTS.

Close any extra tabs if you have more than one open.

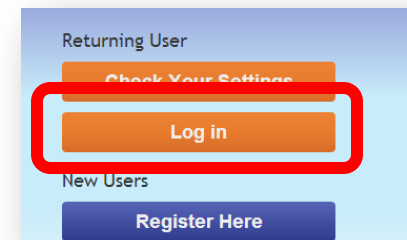

7th – Click the link for Successnet Plus.
